"A superb EP likely to appeal to anybody into classic, melodic post-punk, from Chameleons to The Sound to BFG and beyond, these boys crackle and pout, fret and froth. You're going to like them."

- UK Journalist, Mick Mercer on Above From Beneath

"The Julia Dream's new disc will go in our books as one of the most creative offerings of the year!"

- IndependentsOnly.com

"The Julia Dream's latest release, Above From Beneath, plays perfectly: the lines are crisp and elegant, the mix is vibrant and clean, propelling the power of the band's message."

- Performer Magazine

"The Julia Dream put on a great show every time. Their music is unique, has great melodies and a lot of weight within the lyrics. Pay attention, Atlanta! This is the future of alternative rock, not some kids brooding over their allowance."

- LEP, Independent Music Review

"The band's mixture of New Wave riffs and mildly psychedelic trance-rock demands to be played as loud as possible, and the results are mesmerizing during a performance."

- Performer Magazine

"The Julia Dream sound like they've just awoken from a 17-year coma, where Peter Murphy's 'Love Hysteria', The Cure's 'Disintegration', and U2's 'The Joshua Tree' ruled..."

- Stomp and Stammer

"The whole retro feel of the music works... keep that. Aliens All Laughing hints at a sense of fun in the writing and the approach. Also a keeper."

- Atlanta Journal-Constitution
